Only the heartless are hopeless.

The greatest gain of life is the loss of self.

People who have culture are never conscious of it.

Married life on an average lasts but twenty-eight years.

Some girls are shy about marrying men who are shy of money.

There's many a time when an ounce of silence is worth a ton of talk.

The average depth of the Atlantic is estimated to be about 16,000 feet.

There are men who wouldn't even pay a compliment without taking a receipt.

Some of the recent writers of plays seem to get immortality confused with immortality.

Gen. Nogi intends to see to it that nobody presents him with a house when he gets back to Japan.

Our American Pacific cable enables a whisper in Manila to be almost immediately heard in Washington.

Advices from Venezuela indicate that President Castro will introduce Jiu-Jitsu methods in his diplomacy.

German locomotive engineers receive a gold medal and $500 for every ten years of service without accident.

John L. Sullivan is going on the lecture platform, but it is not thought that he will deliver many on temperance just yet.

Republican grafters are developing so fast that each one is hoping to be obscured by the other, and thus escape the grand jury.

According to one of the secretaries of Andrew Carnegie, his motto is: "Millions for libraries, but not one cent for Mrs. Chadwick."

The speaker of the Colorado lower house has promised not to use his gun for a gavel. We feel hopeful that Colorado is getting civilized.

A Western man claimed to have kissed Mrs. Carrie Nation, though he did not state whether he was kissing a heroine, or doing the act of a hero.

Russia is going to follow our example with Schley and have her greatest fighter tried by a military tribunal. Monarchies are almost as ungrateful as republics.

A writer in a current magazine is puzzled to know why so many young men study law and never practice it. They probably find it helpful in keeping them out of jail.

The inaugural ball having been decided on to be held in the Pension Office, The Boston Globe wants to know if Commissioner Ware's motto, "The Lord Hates a Liar," is to be left hanging on the wall. As this would be offensive to many of the guests it will be turned to the wall for that evening.

The Port Arthur fleet was said to be worth in money, before the beginning of the war, $150,000,000. It is probably worth now just what it will bring for old junk, although it is possible that some of the vessels may be raised and put in commission again. But the $150,000,000 that the fleet represented is all gone, so far as Russia is concerned. And this is but one item in the enormous cost of the great struggle that is being waged in the Far East.

An angry Pennsylvania Republican has kicked over the traces and told a few "frenzied truths" about political affairs in that State. He says: "Senator Quay died with a political mortgage of $500,000 and bequeathed it to his successor; the successor, however, who would stand for it was hard to find. He adds that this is but a five-cent game compared with some that Quay went through with."

A man over in Indiana in returning home from hunting the other day found his neighbor just leaving the house, and being of a jealous nature, drew his gun and filled the man's legs with fine shot. A lawsuit followed and it was learned that the man was there to borrow the local paper. The lawsuit cost $75 and the doctor bill was $25, and $1 would have saved the trouble.

Some rural mail carriers have been dismissed from the service by the postmaster-general because of attempts to influence legislation in the interest of their salaries by direct partisan action. The government has forbidden this kind of "influence" to be used on Congress and congressmen upon the part of its employees.

At a Sunday school meeting in Helena, Mont., a deacon said the children should be taught to act strictly honestly, for even one of his children once asked him if it was wrong to steal from a trust. When the youngster gets a little older he will find it impossible to steal from a trust.

When you hear a man discoursing on his own goodness, and telling how he never made a mistake, failed to perform a duty or keep an appointment, it won't do the least bit of harm to quietly slide your hand down in your pants pocket and get a grip on your pocketbook.

Another Chadwick trunk has been opened, and enough brown paper was found therein to manipulate several million dollars. It is thought that a few more developments will reveal the list of banks she had down for future operations.

We have just found out what has ailed the weather man. Every time Chicago has a blizzard New York has to have a worse one, and the rest of us have to stand for it.

Congress has tackled the problem that concerns the obscurest of us—how to keep expenditures within receipts.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

There's many a woman who may not be beautiful to the one who does not know her, but she is an angel to those who love and reverence her.

After all, we are not sorry we hear the bad things said about us, and we hear enough.

WILL KEEP OPEN ON SUNDAY.

Lewis and Clark Exposition Will Introduce New Features.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 17.—It has been decided to throw open the gates to all the exhibits at the Lewis and Clark exposition on Sundays.

The management will endeavor to emphasize the educational features as much as possible. A local organization, headed by ministers, educators, philanthropists, and students of advanced thought, will work in conjunction with the management of the fair in the matter of Sunday congresses, and the plan is to have the gatherings in the exposition auditorium devoted to discussions and addresses upon education, religion, principles of government, charities, corrections, humanitarian laws, etc.

Missing Girl Found Married.

Harriman, Tenn., Jan. 17.—Two weeks before Christmas Miss Linda Edwards, a pretty country girl, left home, presumably to visit relatives in a nearby town. The mother of the young lady suspected nothing until the time arrived for the return of her daughter. When the girl failed to reach home, inquiry was made of the relatives and the fact was developed that she had not been there. Foul play was at once suspected and a party was organized to search for the body. While this was being done, the mystery was cleared by the receipt of a letter from the young lady at Thornton, Wash., stating that instead of going to the home of her relatives she had joined her sweetheart at Thornton and that they were married on Christmas day.

Thousands Have Kidney

Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.
